STEWARDSHIP MOMENT
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, we hear proclaimed the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. He teaches. He heals. And all are amazed. By their Baptism, Christian stewards realize they are called to do the same in their lives. They are called to be the light of Christ each day. As we bring closure to the beginning of this new year, now is a good time to ask the Lord to fill our hearts with courage and faith, so that, we too, may publicly minister in His name; that we may be liberated from our insecurities and fear, so that we can share the Gospel authoritatively and work to heal at least one wounded relationship in the coming months ahead.

Archbishop Schnurr Urges Your Support of the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act: This legislation, which prohibits abortion after 20 weeks gestation on the scientific evidence that fetuses can feel pain by that point, passed the House of Representatives on October 3, and is now in committee in the U.S. Senate as S.1922. Please consider using simple templates found at www.catholiccincinnati.org/ministries-offices/respect-life-2/unborn-act to write our Senators, urging them to support this common-sense legislation that in many polls 60% of Americans also support.
